money to make it a success. Bonus picture shows have been given by the party committee headed by E. J. Hill the admission to be a toy for a less fortunate child and many toys have been given by men and women who have realized the importance of no child passing Christmas day without some toy to prove Santa Claus

CENSUS SET TO START JAN. 2

Creelino Man To Direct Business and Industrial Survey in District

HEADQUARTERS IN CITY Operations Will Be Carried on from Office of Congressman Fletcher

A national business and manufacturing census will get under way in Marion county and Ohio Jan. 2. It was announced today following the appointment of Paul L. Winemiller of Creelino as census supervisor for the Fifth census district. The appointment was made by Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper.

The district over which Mr.
Winemiller will have supervision is composed of Marion and the six other counties of the Eighth census district. Mr. Winemiller will open the census headquarters Thursday in offices on South Sixth street occupied by Congressman Brooks Fletcher.

In addition to an assistant supervisor a secretary and clerk eight enumerators will be appointed in Marion county. They will be taken from county relief rolls.

Other counties in the district and the number of enumerators to be employed are: Crawford 8, Hancock 8, Hardin 8, Morrow 2, and Wyandot 4. Enumerators in other counties will be taken from their relief rolls.

The census is to include a thorough survey of all business and manufacturing to provide information that will show the strides being made in business recovery and the amount of unemployed labor being absorbed by private industry.

Work on the project must be completed by June 30, 1936. It will be supervised by Mr. Winemiller and will be carried on by the state R. C. Moran of Cincinnati will direct the census in the southeast Ohio section of which this district is a part.

Delaware county in the seventeenth congressional district is to have four enumerators and Union county in the seventh district will have three.

Mr. Winemiller while he will have his district headquarters here will continue his residence in Creelino. He is married and has three children. He has been employed as sports writer for the Creelino Advocate and formerly worked at the Pennsylvania roundhouse in Creelino.

San Claus will have the privilege of using his sleigh and reindeers in his annual Christmas visit to Marion and most of the northern half of the United States weather observers predicted today.

The forecasters eyed their thermometer gauged the barometer sniffed the wind and then predicted the weather for this vicinity and most of the nation would continue cold tonight. Generally, fair and colder tonight in Marion is the prediction. Mostly cloudy probably followed by light snow and warmer weather is forecast for Christmas day.

Dr. B. E. Patterson's weather observer here reported a low temperature of 13 degrees above zero last night and a high of 22 above. A year ago a low of 29 above and a high of 39 above were reported. An inch of snow fell in the 24 hour period ended at 8 a. m. today.

Prospects are ideal for an opportunity to try out the new skates slide snowshoes and sport logs that Santa was reported loading into his sleigh for his annual trip tonight.

BRITISH POLICE TO GUARD LINDY AND HIS FAMILY

No Extraordinary Precautions Planned but Bobbies and Detectives Will Be Alert

NO FANFARE PREPARED

LONDON, Dec. 24.—British authorities disclosed today that extra police would patrol the docks of Liverpool when Col. and Mrs.
Charles A. Lindbergh arrive from the United States seeking safety from threats of kidnapping their small son Jon.

Otherwise officials said the Lindberghs would be assured the same protection by the nation's briquet and blue-jacketed bobbies and the plain clothes men as any other visitors to England.

Only few guards
The extra guard to be turned out at Liverpool will be only a small one authorities asserted demonstrating that British police have not the slightest fear that kidnapers or any others outside the law will attempt to molest the Lindberghs.

A plain clothes man and uniformed officer meet all boats docking at Liverpool where the famous American flier and his wife and child are expected by informed sources to arrive around Jan. 1 about the S. S. American Janitor.

Although police declined to disclose their plans definitely it was understood authoritatively that a few extra uniformed men would be stationed to guard the docks.
This was expected to constitute the entire welcoming party with the exception of the usual customs and immigration officers.

By this time in London
The sailing of the Lindberghs from New York early Sunday was interpreted generally by the British press to mean they were obliged to leave their own country because of crime conditions.

The noted family was described as seeking seclusion in safe quiet England where Col. Lindbergh was reported to have been immensely impressed by the efficiency of British law and customs in guarding the rights of private citizens.

Some English newspapers also felt in America had been rendered unbearable for the Lindberghs by threats of a kidnaper against three year old Jon.

In the search for safety the family fled mid has sustained the opinion of the United States.

The check received by millions of Americans reading the news was comparable only to that which

JUDGE FREES WOMAN WHO KILLED RIVAL

Says He Hopes Fate Will Deal More Kindly With Her in Future.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Mrs. Clara Blumenthal, 33, Queens housewife, who was convicted of first degree murder for the slaying of her husband's secretary, was freed today under a suspended sentence of six to 12 years.

"I want to take my boy and go far, far away," she said after County Judge Charles S. Folger had expressed the hope that "fate will deal with you more kindly in the future. Mrs. Blumenthal has a 10-year-old son, Elmer.

The shooting occurred on the lawn of the Blumenthal home last August, after Mrs. Blumenthal heard her husband, operator of a chain of beauty shops, reproach his love for the secretary, Miss Virginia Seigh.

The defense contended Mrs. Blumenthal was not in her mind when she shot Seigh accidentally.

Declaring she would not return to her husband, Mrs. Blumenthal said:

"I've taken all the punishment I can stand. I think it best that he go his way and I go mine."

The Alabama explained that he had not yet conferred with other leaders and planned to see Mr. Roosevelt soon regarding the legislative program for the coming session. He pointed out that the Townsend legislation would have to originate in the house and probably would be referred to the ways and means committee.

"Will it come to a vote in session?" he was asked. "No," Bankhead replied.

"Why not?" a reporter persisted.

"Because I don't think the committee will report it favorably," he explained, adding that he would issue a statement in a few days which would outline his own position without equivocation.

News Bonus Pass

Stricken by a heart attack which forced him to abandon his duties last session, Bankhead returned to his desk much improved.

One of the ablest of the New Deal's high command, Bankhead predicted that the house as usual would pass the soldier bonus bill over the President's veto. He declared, however, to forecast possible separate action.

The Alabama largely left off criticism of Minority Leader Bernard M. Smith that Republicans would win 60 seats in 1936.

Asked if the coming session would be short as reportedly desired by the President, the majority leader said:

"It will be snappy—I don't know whether it'll be short."

Brain Exercise Develops Physical Strength Doctor Says

BOSTON — Think and grow physically strong.

Exercise of the gray matter in the brain is the best way to develop a strong body, said Dr. Frederick Rink Rogers, director of physical education at Boston University.

Using a manometer or grip tester, Dr. Rogers examined students and teachers, businessmen and laborers. The teachers he found were stronger than their pupils despite their less active physical life and their age disadvantage.

The businessmen he said were stronger than the laborers.

"Thinking is fundamentally the act of coordinating the muscles," Dr. Rogers said. The act of coordinating the muscles strengthens the body.

COUPLE BATTLES OVER BOY NOT THEIR SON

Judge Rules on Parentage of Child Adopted from an Orphanage.

By The Associated Press. BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 24—Supreme Court Justice Clinton T. Horton late yesterday ruled 7-year-old Herman Tober Jr. about whose parentage Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tober have waged a bitter legal battle, is the son of neither.

Judge Horton held the boy was born in East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 6, 1928, as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Willoughby and was adopted from an orphanage in 1933 by Mrs. Tober and Lloyd A. Owens, her former husband, while she lived there.

Previously the court announced Tober would be given the annulment of his marriage to Mrs. Owens.

ment on the ground of "fraud, deceit and misrepresentation." Tober, 37, contended his wife Gertrude, 35, induced him to marry her in 1934 by inducing him to be the boy's father. She declared the child was born to her in St. Louis, Mo.

Willoughby, now living in Brown, Calif., testified for Tober and said the child was one of six children he placed in the East St. Louis orphanage. He did not indicate whether he would claim the boy, who is now with Mrs. Tober.

During the hearings a blood specialist testified his tests showed Mrs. Tober could not be the boy's mother, but Tober could be the father.

Previously the court announced Tober would be given the annulment of his marriage to Mrs. Owens.

The trustees of Pleasant Two, Marion Co., Ohio, will receive sealed bids for medical services for indigent of said township for the year of 1936.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Ever since that historic pilgrimage of the Three Wise Men to the new born babe in the manger, the world has been made brighter and happier each year through the giving of gifts and friendly greetings in commemoration of that event.

It is fitting, therefore, that at this time we should lay aside business for a moment to express to you the friendship, good will and kind regard which we have for you the year 'round.

May the joys and happiness of Christmas be yours in abundance and may the New Year bring you the prosperity you so well deserve, and to this we add our sincerest hope that in the year ahead it may be our privilege to put into action the good wishes we have expressed here to you.

The Millard Hunt Co.

To Our Old Friends, Loyal and True — To Our Valued New Friends, and to Those Whose Friendship We Strive To Deserve, We Heartily Wish Unmeasured Happiness This Christmas and Throughout the Coming Year.
